

2023 Completed Unit Results Release Schedule to Students

Release dates

The following table lists the date on which results are published for each teaching period.

Dates for release of completed unit results to students
Semester 1	Friday 14 July 2023
Semester 2 (Adelaide graduation candidates)	Friday 24 November 2023
Semester 2	Friday 15 December 2023

Unit results publication procedure

- Completed unit results are distributed following college and university approval.
- Students are notified by email once results are approved and released for viewing, and are advised how to access their results.
- Unit results are released in a student's record in Paradigm, the University of Divinity student management system. Students must log into Paradigm to view their unit results.
- Where results are pending either by extension or non-completion, updated results are released on the student management system as soon as possible after official approval.
