Introduction to Christian Mission

Dr Tania Nelson

15 - 18 July 2026
9am - 5pm

This class will explore the biblical and theological basis for understanding the mission of God. It examines approaches to, and models of, Christian mission. It investigates the elements of responsible and ethical missional practices.

Dr Tania Nelson has long had a keen interest in mission, and it was the focus of her doctoral research. She's taught in Lutheran schools, served in Local Mission and Lutheran Media and now serves the Mawson Lakes community.

Credit enrolment: Normal unit fees apply
Audit enrolment: $570

Coaching and Mentoring

Prof Albert Haddad

24 - 25 July 2026
9am - 5pm

This class will expose participants to multiple theories and practice of the coaching and mentoring continuum. Participants will also explore the role of emotional intelligence, listening skills, critical questioning, reflection skills, and theological and spiritual insights in the coaching and mentoring relationship. Practice, feedback and reflection opportunities will be encouraged throughout the sessions.

Professor Albert Haddad has over 20 years of experience in leadership roles in higher education, theology, and ministry, including recently with the University of Divinity. He is the founder of Leadwise Consulting Pty Ltd, a leadership and change management consultancy.
