

2020 Higher Education Workshop Calendar

Scheduled workshops

Workshops are offered as enhanced learning experiences for students, to provide face-to-face engagement with the unit's subject matter and an orientation to associated assessment tasks, to promote a sense of learning community and an opportunity for sharing between participants.

Attendance

If you select this option please make every effort to attend because there's a minimum number required to make it a worthwhile experience.

Cancelled workshops

Workshop are subject to cancellation if a minimum cohort is not achieved. See Notes overleaf for more details.

* Incorporates DE8030L Introduction to Theological Education

** The Systematic Theology workshops are designed especially for the undergraduate unit CT1002L The Christian Faith, however students in CT8002L The Christian Faith in Modern Context may find it helpful to participate in part or in full in the workshops since many of the theological topics addressed in them are common to the postgraduate unit. Contact the lecturer for more information.

Notes

Workshop terms, applications and processes

- This calendar is correct as per the published date but may be subject to change.
- Minimum cohort numbers apply. ALC reserves the right to cancel workshops due to insufficient enrolments or conditions beyond its control.
  - Application closing dates: 4 weeks prior to the start of semester
  - Notification of any cancellations or changes of date and/or venue will be made as early as practicable.
  - Please check with the college prior to any airline booking.
- To attend a workshop, enrol in a unit by choosing online (OL) study mode or blended (BL), tick 'Yes' to attending a workshop, then enter the details of the workshop state and location
  - Most workshops are associated with online units; workshops for units in the Graduate Certificate in Theological Education are delivered by blended mode.

Workshop sessions

- Workshop session times are generally 9 am to 4 pm, but will be confirmed a few weeks prior to the scheduled workshop.
